Hitachi Automotive Systems renews NAIAS Official Sponsorship and joins new AutoMobili-D Exhibit

Detroit, Michigan, December 12, 2016 --- Hitachi Automotive Systems Americas, Inc. has announced the company's Official Sponsorship of the 2017 North American International Auto Show (NAIAS), to be held at Cobo Center in Detroit, Michigan from January 8-January 22.

As Hitachi Automotive Systems Americas prepares for its third year at the show, the company will continue to promote its brand in North America and highlight the company's key autonomous mobility technologies.

"The mobility industry is currently undergoing more dramatic changes than it has experienced at any time in the past," said John Nunneley, senior vice president of engineering for Hitachi Automotive Systems Americas. "With our deep experience in automotive technology, IT and high tech industries, and Social Innovations businesses, Hitachi is uniquely positioned to be a critical player in the transformation of the automotive industry" he added.

Hitachi Automotive Systems Americas will join the Detroit show's new AutoMobili-D exhibit with a display inside Planet M, formerly Michigan Hall. Cars are the core of American mobility and the company will showcase our autonomous mobility technologies for the US auto market, featuring some of its camera and sensor technologies at booth number 34 within Planet M's Autonomous Driving community. Hitachi will also host two symposiums on the AutoMobili-D main stage in the Cobo Center atrium during Industry Preview at 4:00 PM on Wednesday, January 11 and at 11:00 AM on Thursday, January 12.
